

CHARGES VILLA OFFICER IMPRISONS DAUGHTER

GIRL'S FATHER ASKS AUTHORITIES TO WATCH FOR MEXICAN STEAMER

Wealthy Mexican Rancher States
Girl is Prisoner on Boat Bound up Pacific Coast—Intermittent Firing Continues at Matamoros.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 3.—Kidnapped by Major Antonio Tovar, Villa commander at La Paz, Lower California, Miss Josefina Canalia, daughter of a wealthy Mexican land owner is held a prisoner aboard the little Mexican steamer Santiago, which is bound up the coast, according to Jacinto Canalia, the young woman's father, who arrived here today. Mr. Canalia asked officers up and down the California coast to keep watch for the vessel and the girl. Miss Canalia is 22 years old. She was educated at Vassar college and is said to be the fiancée of a young American.

She recently returned to the ranch near La Paz. Tovar's attentions were rejected, the father said, and a few days ago he appeared at the ranch with soldiers, shot two of the ranch retainers and binding the girl, took her aboard the Santiago, which steamed out of La Paz, bound north.

Funston Witnesses Firing.
Brownsville, Texas, April 3.—Intermittent rifle firing from the Carranza trenches in Matamoros at Villa outposts continued all day today. Major General Frederick Funston and a party of American army officers witnessed part of this firing from the American bank of the river, about 150 yards from the western end of the Carranza trenches which were filled with men. The shooting apparently was without effect.

General Funston, Major W. H. Hay, his chief of staff and Captain W. G. Ball, his aide, left tonight for San Antonio. General Funston said he expected to return here when Matamoros is attacked. About 500 Villa reinforcements today left Camargo, about 100 miles from Matamoros, enroute for the front here.

Renews Representations.

Washington, April 3.—The United States government has renewed its representations to General Carranza to obtain respect for foreign flags recently violated at Manzanillo, instructing his officers there to afford protection to foreigners and their interests. Conditions in the Tampico district gave officials much concern today. State department dispatches said, "the food situation at Tampico is growing worse, about 300 Americans are desirous of returning to the United States and fighting still continues at Ebano."

U. S. OBSERVERS WITH GERMAN ARMIES ARE ORDERED HOME

Recall Orders Signed by Garrison—
Secretary States Mission Has Been Fulfilled.

Washington, April 3.—The five army officers on duty as military observers with German armies have been ordered home and their places will not be taken by other officers. The reason assigned by Secretary Garrison for the recall order today was that their mission had been fulfilled. This explanation it was announced would be the war department's last word on the matter.

It is known however, that other reasons, largely of a personal character were considered by army officials in determining to withdraw the observers.

The American officers, it is said have found their position somewhat difficult because of the high tension to which at least a few of those with whom they must come in contact in Germany have been strung by months of warfare and press reports in Germany criticising the attitude of the United States on various subjects relating to the war. The effect has been to hamper the observers and open possibilities of personal friction that might become international and officials here are understood to have determined to withdraw the officers rather than that any unpleasant incident should occur.

TO NAME COUNSEL FOR HATCH

Washington, April 3.—Attorney General Gregory decided today to detail a member of his staff to detail Tse-Na-Gat, known as "Hatch", and other Piute Indians who recently surrendered to Brig. Gen. Scott. "Hatch" is charged with the murder of a Mexican herder and his companions with him having resisted a posse. Commissioner Sells of the Indian bureau, asked that counsel be appointed.

ATLANTIC SEABOARD IN GRIP OF A MINIATURE BLIZZARD

Causes Craft off Coast to Scurry for Shelter—Ties Traffic up in New York City.

New York, April 3.—Virtually the entire Atlantic Seaboard was in the grip of a miniature blizzard today. Snow, thick, wet and sticky, driven by a northeast gale which at times attained a velocity of sixty miles an hour, held up trans-Atlantic sailings, caused craft off the coast to scurry for shelter, damaged telephone and telegraph wires, delayed interurban and suburban trains and crippled transportation on the service and elevated lines. Tonight the flakes were falling fast as ever but local weather bureau officials believed the storm will have blown itself out before morning. The condition of the streets tonight made remote the possibility of holding the usual Easter parade on Fifth avenue tomorrow.

Disturbance is General.

The disturbance was general between Maine and Florida. The center of the storm was reported to be off Cape Hatteras, where the Steamship Prins Maurits of the Royal Dutch West Indian line was in distress and sending wireless calls for help. High tides banked up by the gale inflicted considerable damage along the New Jersey and Long Island coasts.

Down the bay and in the east and north rivers traffic was at a standstill. In Greater New York automobiles, trucks and wagons were lined up and unable to move. Fifteen thousand men were called out to aid in clearing out the snow.

Telegraph Lines Damaged.

The telegraph and telephone companies reported that their lines through the state of Virginia and a part of North Carolina were the most seriously damaged by the storm. Eighteen coast wise and trans-Atlantic steamships including the big Cunard liner Lusitania were tonight awaiting for some light up in the storm so they might slip out to sea.

GIANT STEAMSHIP COMBINATION GOES INTO HANDS OF RECEIVER

NEW YORK, April 3.—The International Mercantile Marine company, the giant steamship combination organized in 1902 by J. P. Morgan & Co., which placed under one control some of the principal English, American and Belgian steamship lines plying between the United States and Europe today went into the hands of a federal receiver. The company has for six months been unable to pay the interest on its $52,744,000 four and a half per cent collateral trust bonds.

While the International Mercantile Marine has been unable to pay dividends since its organization it is said that with the outbreak of the European war its earnings were severely diminished precipitating the present crisis. Many of its ships are now in war service and its various services have been greatly curtailed.

LEAVE SELECTION OF ROUTE OF DIXIE HIGHWAY TO COMMITTEE

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 3.—Selection of the route of the projected Dixie Highway from Chicago to Miami, Florida, was left to a commission of fourteen men by the conference of governors and road advocates which met here today to launch the movement. Two commissioners each are to be appointed from Illinois, Indiana, Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia and Florida, the states through which the road will extend.

The conference adopted a resolution remonstrating the national congress to appropriate funds for the construction and maintenance of the highway and President Wilson was thanked for his interest in the highway as expressed in a telegram to Representative Moon of Chattanooga which was read today.

EXAMINE MANY WITNESSES.

Colon, April 3.—Many witnesses were examined today at the military investigation into the disturbance of the shooting and killing of Corporal Langdon by a Colon police lieutenant. Major General Wood is following the course of the examination closely.

It was learned today that six Panama policemen were slightly bruised in the fighting of yesterday but that none of them were shot.

PASS INITIATIVE AMENDMENT.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 3.—The proposed initiative and referendum amendment to the state constitutional amendment to the senate today by a narrow margin. It was recommended for indefinite postponement by the committee on constitutional amendments and the vote on the recommendation resulted in a tie of 17-17. This permits the amendment which was endorsed by the 35th general assembly to go on the calendar on its merits.

COAL TRAFFIC

MANAGER TESTIFIES

Chicago, April 3.—B. J. Rowe, coal traffic manager of the Illinois Central railroad, testified today in the interstate commerce commission hearing in the western freight case that more reductions than advances in the freight rates on soft coal would result from the western railroad's proposed readjustment of the rates on certain commodities.

GERMANS ARE POURING TROOPS INTO HUNGARY

RUSS MAKING DESPERATE EFFORTS TO FORCE UZSOK AND LUPKOW

Czar's Forces Scarcely Have Had Considerable Success—Reports of Proposed Zeppelin Raids on England are Being Revived.

London, April 3.—(10:45 p. m.)—The Germans are pouring reinforcements into Hungary to support the Austrian armies, which are being hard pressed by the Russians in the passes of the Carpathian mountains, and are also, according to despatches from Holland, again sending men from Belgium to strengthen the western front, where the Russians have taken the offensive. The battle in the Carpathians continues by night and day. The Russians, who are being continually reinforced, are making desperate efforts to force Uzsook and Lupkow Passes and on the success of these operations their army, which is on the Hungarian side of Dukla, is waiting before continuing its advance.

Claim Defeat of Austrians.

Seemingly the Russians have had considerable success for the official reports announce the repulse of Austrian attacks near Mezolaborcz, which is due south of Lupkow Pass and west of Uzsook pass, and continued progress in the region of the latter pass, despite the stubborn resistance of the Austrians.

On April 1st, the Russians claim to have taken prisoners one hundred officers and 7,000 men and to have captured ten machine guns. Austrian correspondents view this onslaught with misgiving and their despatches give it precedence over the battle in Bukovina, where the Austrians a few days ago took the offensive and penetrated into Bessarabia, but have since, according to Russian reports been defeated. There is no change in Poland but the movement of German troops from Belgium eastward indicates that their general staff are uneasy over the activity of the Russians along the east Prussian frontier and in the central portion of the old kingdom. Having fortified the whole of Belgium and having recently opened the sluices attending the floods in Flanders it is possible that they feel sure or do not anticipate that the allies will make their effort for some weeks yet. At any rate they have, Dutch correspondents say, depleted their resources.

Attach Little Importance to Raid.

Not much importance is attached in London to the raid by Bulgarian irregulars into Serbia. These raids are continually taking place, the only difference being that the latest one was carried out with greater force than usual and was aimed at the railway from Uskup to Saloniki. The arrival of Serbian reinforcements compelled the Bulgarians to retire to their own frontier, however, before considerable losses were suffered on both sides.

German submarines continue their activity, today's score being one British steamer, the Lockwood, and a French fishing smack bound for Newfoundland.

With the return of calmer weather it is expected that the airmen will become more active and reports of proposed Zeppelin raids on England are being revived.

CALIFORNIA TRACK AND FIELD TEAM DEFEATS U. OF ILLINOIS

BERKELEY, Calif., April 3.—The track and field team of the University of California defeated the University of Illinois athletes here today by 71 to 51.

The track was slightly slow, owing to recent rains and no records were broken. Fast time was made however in several events. One of the most interesting performances was that of Stanton of California, who won the 220 yard dash from Hohman of Illinois in 22 1-5 seconds.

Illinois excelled in the distance runs, Gantz, Tapping and Mason, having little difficulty in beating their western opponents.

California gained first honors in the field events, except the pole vault in which Scholinger of Illinois and Gibbs tied at twelve feet and 1 inch. The Illinoisans took the hurdle races easily.

AUTHORIZES BOND ISSUE.

Springfield, Ill., April 3.—The state public utilities commission today issued an order authorizing the Michigan Central railway company to issue three and one-half per cent first mortgage bonds to the amount of $4,000,000, payable on the first day of May, 1915. The commission also issued an order authorizing the Illinois Central railroad company to issue equipment trust certificates to the amount of $1,980,000.

PREDICTS FAIR

Washington, April 3.—The weather bureau promised relief for tomorrow's Easter finery from the storm for the eastern states.

The prediction was fair weather in the south and central Atlantic states and clearing weather in eastern New York and New England after a day of snow, rain and wind.

DANIELS COMMENDS ENSIGN.

Washington, April 3.—Secretary Daniels today commended Ensign Robert W. Cary, Jr., of the Cruiser Maryland for "courage, ability and resource in helping save three lives at the time of recent boiler explosion on the Cruiser San Diego."

War News Summarized

Poland has almost dropped from sight while Russians and Germans and Austrians are sending up their forces for the battle in the Carpathians, which, although it has been going on for weeks, shows no signs as yet of definite conclusion. Here the difficulties to be surmounted by the invading Muscovites seem almost beyond human endurance but the Russians faced the necessity of driving their way through the passes if they are to reach the Hungarian plains, are fighting with desperation those in the front ranks knowing that heavy reinforcements are behind them and coming up with all speed.

The Austrian war office says it has been ascertained that all the Russian divisions which were before Przemyel are now on the Carpathian front.

These Russian reinforcements, Vienna admits, have forced the fighting on both sides of the "Cisna and Bercelny Gorge" to retreat "somewhat" but claims to have defeated the Russians who attacked positions north of Uzsook pass in a sanguinary engagement.

Meanwhile Germany is sending troops into Hungary and strong support of this kind is likely to have an encouraging effect on the Austrians whose resistance has been described as most determined. In the western war zone the operations are almost at a standstill so far as any concerted attack is concerned. There have been the usual number of minor actions along the front.

Bulgarian irregulars, who however, are reported to have been wearing regular military uniforms have crossed the Serbian frontier and killed Serbian guards.

In an engagement later with Serbian troops the Bulgarians were driven back.

Several thousand constituted the force of the irregulars whose losses are said to have been heavy. The Serbians lost fifty men killed.

London does not attach any great importance to the raid as being one of many similar incidents in the past, but the invasion of Serbia by Bulgarians has caused a marked impression at Rome, one of the leading papers declaring that it was actually a battle that took place and not merely a frontier incident.

Austria has officially denied that negotiations have been opened with Russia for a separate peace.

DECLINE TO DISCUSS FISKE'S REQUEST TO BE RELIEVED

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Both Secretary Daniels and Rear-Admiral Bradley A. Fiske, aide for operations, declined to discuss today the latter's request to be relieved of duty as senior military adviser in the navy department. The secretary said he had not determined what assignment he would give to Admiral Fiske nor had he selected the chief of naval operations, a position recently created by congress. In naval circles the request of Admiral Fiske to be relieved as aide for operations was the chief topic of interest. The fact that he had differed from the views of Secretary Daniels in the recent hearings before congress on the preparedness of the American navy for war was generally ascribed as the reason for his voluntary withdrawal. His written communication to the secretary gave no reason for his request.

BAN JOHNSON CONFERS WITH HEAD OF ST. LOUIS FEDERALS

St. Louis, Mo., April 3.—A conference was arranged tonight between B. B. Johnson, president of the American League and member of the National commission and Phil Ball, vice-president of the St. Louis Federal League club. This conference, it was rumored, dealt with the possible sale of the St. Louis National League team.

The local National League club it is said has been on the market for nearly a year. Mrs. S. P. Britton, largest stockholder of the National League club, has announced however, that she would refuse to sell unless her demands as to price were met.

IMPOSE SECRECY ON MOVEMENTS OF RAIDER

NAVY DEPARTMENT REFUSES INFORMATION REGARDING THE EITEL

Takes Added Precautions to Prevent Any Domestic Wireless Sending Anything Concerning Ship for Fear Belligerents Might Pick Up Messages.

BULLETIN.

Newport News, Va., April 4.—At 1:30 o'clock this morning Prinz Eitel Friedrich still was at her pier here. All was quiet aboard the commerce raider and it was generally believed she would not be moved during the night.

Washington, April 3.—Obligations of strict neutrality caused the United States government today to impose absolute secrecy on all information pertaining to the movements or intentions of the German commerce raider Prinz Eitel Friedrich, tied up at Newport News for repairs.

Although the wireless was practically the only means of communication for many hours today with Newport News, telegraph and telephone being paralyzed by the snow storm, the navy department at all times refused to say whether or not the Eitel had sailed.

Might Have Blocked Escape.

The fact that a blinding snow storm swept over the Virginia Capes, forming a curtain of gray haze, which naval officers here thought provided an ideal opportunity for the Eitel to escape to sea, spread the impression that the ship might have slipped out to run the cordon of British and French cruisers lying in wait for her. Officials at the navy and treasury departments declined to reveal whether any belligerent merchant vessel had departed last night or today making impossible, under the neutrality regulations, the departure of the warship hostile thereto until 24 hours had elapsed. This, it was thought in some quarters, might have blocked the escape of the Eitel had she been ready to dash to sea. The navy department took added precautions today to prevent any domestic wireless from recording the time of the Eitel's departure or sending any information concerning her for fear belligerent cruisers at sea might pick up such messages and afford Germany a ground for complaint of a violation of neutrality.

AMERICAN STEAMER GREENBRIER FOUNDERS IN THE NORTH SEA

BREMEN, via Amsterdam and London, April 3.—(7:03 p. m.)—A telegram to the Weser Zeitung says that the American Steamer Greenbrier from Charleston, S. C., for Bremen has foundered in the North Sea. Her crew was landed at Wyk in Schleswig.

The Greenbrier was detained at Kirkwall, Orkney Island, on March 13th for investigation by the British authorities and sailed for Bremen after a delay of three days. According to maritime records she arrived in Bremen on March 22nd. In that event, she probably was on the return trip instead of being on the way to Bremen.

CITY OF ATLANTA FINDS NO TRACE OF DISABLED STEAMER

BOSTON, April 3.—A wireless message from the Steamer City of Atlanta was picked up here tonight saying that she had cruised about the location given in a call for help sent out today by the Royal Dutch West Indies company's steamer, Prins Maurits, and had found no trace of her. Since noon, according to the City of Atlanta, no word had been heard from the disabled steamer.

Springfield, Ill., April 3.—E. C. Butler of St. Louis, said to be one of the members of an alleged gang of blackmailers operating in that city, was arrested here last night. Butler's arrest was brought about by a telephone call he received from Carlinville, advising him to get out of town at once. The St. Louis police were notified and advised that Butler he held although the local department was not informed of the charge against him until today when Detective Hoagland came here to take Butler back to St. Louis.

DIVING TUBE LEAKS SLIGHTLY; HOLDS UP SALVAGE OPERATIONS

Officials Will not Permit Diver to Descend to Supposed Level of F-4 Until Apparatus is Perfected.

Honolulu, T. H., April 3.—Tested today to a depth of 320 feet, the improvised diving tube which is to be used in the work of raising the submarine F-4 leaked slightly. Salvage operations are being held up until the tube is perfected.

It had been planned to lower Diver Agaz in the tube today to the spot where the F-4 is believed to have been located but the officials would not permit him to descend to the supposed level of the submarine until the apparatus had been further tested. After being submerged for an hour several inches of water was found to have been forced into the tube as a result of the terrific pressure encountered.

Cruiser to Sale Tuesday.

Washington, April 3.—The Cruiser Maryland with the expert divers and equipment dispatched to help raise the submarine F-4 probably will leave San Francisco next Tuesday for Honolulu. The divers are enroute to San Francisco from New York.

No report from Honolulu had been received late today.

Part of Apparatus Delayed.

San Francisco, Cal., April 3.—It was learned today that part of the wrecking apparatus to be used in the salvage of the F-4 was not expected to arrive here from New York until next Wednesday. The Cruiser Maryland, due to sail Tuesday for Honolulu will not be delayed on that account, however, naval officials having decided to forward the tardy material on a liner.

I have heard from Little Rock, Natchez, New Orleans and especially from Memphis, where there are a great many friends of the deep waterway of many years standing. "I beg to assure you that it is my belief that you cannot engage in any work which will result in greater benefit to the state and more credit to your administration than this work with the deep waterway and I desire to extend to you my heartiest congratulations and good wishes."

DEFENSE COMPLETES ARGUMENT IN TERRE HAUTE ELECTION CASE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 2.—The defense in the trial of the Terre Haute election fraud case in the federal court has completed its argument and district attorney Dailey began this afternoon the closing argument for the government. He will have all day Monday to complete his review of the case and he has said he will occupy all the time allotted him. Judge Anderson will not be able to instruct the jury before Tuesday. Former Congressman A. O. Stanley of Kentucky closed for the defense.

During the day Fred Morrison, an employee of the city engineer's office of Terre Haute and one of the 28 men on trial changed his plea of not guilty to guilty.

INDICT FIFTY-SEVEN RESIDENTS OF SIMS

ACTION FOLLOWS WEEK'S INVESTIGATION OF ACTS OF VANDALISM

Offenses are Commonly Attributed to Controversy Between Wet and Dry Factions—Four are Already in Jail.

Fairfield, Ill., April 3.—Indictments against fifty seven residents of Sims, Illinois, were returned by the Wayne county grand jury here today after a week's investigation of the dynamiting of a church and other acts of vandalism commonly attributed here to a controversy between wet and dry factions.

Church is Partly Wrecked.

Several weeks ago the Baptist church at Sims was partly wrecked by a dynamite bomb placed there during the night. On a Sunday morning a dead horse was found in the First United Presbyterian church with its head resting on the Bible in the pulpit. Livestock frequently was killed by poison and many animals were shot or cut in their stalls.

The grand jury experienced much difficulty in obtaining witnesses and later in inducing them to testify freely. Many witnesses expressed fear of retaliatory measures by the vandal gangs. The names of the persons indicted will not be made public until after their arrests.

Sims and several surrounding townships were voted dry several years ago. Since then secret gambling and liquor selling places have sprung into existence. The belief is that the outrages are the outcome of the campaign against these places.

Four Already in Jail.

Four men named in the indictments were arrested a week ago and are now in jail here. Most of the others will be arrested tomorrow according to Sheriff L. H. Weaver. H. S. Burgess, state's attorney said tonight those responsible for the "reign of terror" at Sims will be prosecuted speedily.

According to Burgess, Sims and the country north of it has become infested with bootleggers since the townships went dry.

During the last six months, he said, their work assumed the character of that of desperadoes of early western days.

Whenever any citizen sought to take action to suppress gambling or the liquor traffic, Burgess said that citizen or his property was damaged.

TWO MAMMOTH PARADES CLOSE CHICAGO MAYORALTY CAMPAIGN

CHICAGO, April 3.—The most bitter mayoralty campaign in many years came to a close here today with two parades which in size and interest compared with any which in other years have attended presidential elections.

An afternoon parade, with a herd of elephants, clowns and many bands of music was given in the interests of William Hale Thompson, the Republican candidate. A similar demonstration tonight brought the campaign of the Democratic candidate, Robert M. Sweitzer to a close.

Both sides issued statements tonight each claiming the election by about 125,000 votes.

SEVERAL ARE REPORTED MISSING IN HOTEL FIRE AT TOLEDO

TOLEDO, Ohio, April 4.—Police and firemen are attempting to reach the interior of the Niagara Hotel, a four story structure in the center of the business district occupied by members of the theatrical fraternity who were trapped in their beds by a fire at one o'clock this morning. Several are reported missing, but names are not obtainable on account of the heat and smoke. Hal Gates of Chicago and his 13 year old son, vaudeville actors, were badly burned about the feet and hands and were rushed to a hospital.

People will best themselves early today, attending Easter services and incidentally planning for the longest rides they have ever had in Jacksonville for five cents.

Certainly a huge task awaits the historians who are to tell a truthful and unbiased story of the European war. The versions of events thus far have varied so greatly that the world wonders how a history can be written which will be generally considered authentic. The Independent remarks that "The British Review" had an article recently entitled "The True History of the War." Eighteen passages were excised by the censor so that while what is left may be "truth" it cannot be called "the whole truth."

For real heroism it would be hard to eclipse the record of James Spaulding, a five year old lad of St. Louis. He was playing with his three year old sister when her clothing caught on fire. He tore off the burning garments as best he could and then beat his little fists against the window pane until the attention of the mother, who was in a neighboring yard, was attracted. The little girl was badly burned but her brother's heroism may result in saving her life. Many a man would not have acted with equal bravery.

The banquet given by salesmen of the Capps Mills in honor of the members of the firm indicates how cordial is the relationship existing there. The Capps establishment is one of the oldest and most widely known in the country and yet it is likely that the average citizen accepts the fact of the establishment without thinking how much it means in the business welfare of Jacksonville.

The mill and factory give constant employment to hundreds of workers and the prosperity of the business is something which interests every person in Jacksonville. The management of the plant is aggressive and the constant effort to keep thoroughly abreast of the times has been successful. The people of this city can well hope that coming years may serve to further widen the scope of the business. The Capps family has contributed very largely to Jacksonville through a long period of years, and the name is honored through a territory which embraces many states.

Easter.
No day in the whole calendar is fraught with a greater meaning than Easter. It is the day possibly above all others which brings this world into touch with "that which is to come." It is the day when flowers and sacred music touch the senses most acutely. Easter is the day of hope.
Whether or not the impressions of the "holy day" are lasting depends upon "you." And wouldn't it really be a great thing if all the people who today join in services, within the churches, or simply in the temple of their hearts, would carry through succeeding days, the flowers, the songs, the spirit of Easter.

BURROUGHS STILL A WORKER.
John Burroughs, the author-naturalist, was 78 years old yesterday. Despite his advanced years, Mr. Burroughs is active in scientific and literary work, and his latest book "The Breath of Life" is still in the hands of the publishers. Mr.

Burroughs has his admirers the world over and this admiration is shown in various ways. Down in Atlanta, Ga., for instance, there is a Burroughs nature club, and this year the members gave expression to their interest in nature study by a contest to see which one would make the best bird box, and there were five hundred entries. Out in a Utah city, a Burroughs nature study association has been organized, and all the public school children have been enrolled. The movement contemplates enlisting the interest of children all over that state by offering a system of prizes. John Burroughs has done a great work, and that work is far from finished and its influence will go on for countless years to come, even if it should be only a few years before his earthly tasks are finished.

ELECTION REFORMS PROPOSED.

From the view point of the public, there is no more important proposed legislation now being considered by the general assembly than the bills relating to election reform. One bill in line with legislation in other cities and traveling men, is that relating to absent voting. This measure proposes to make it possible to obtain from the proper officials a number of days before election a special ballot to be used by a voter who will be absent from the city on election day. Under this law it would be possible for such a voter to have a ballot mailed to him at a distant city, there go before a notary, make acknowledgment, and mail the ballot back to election officials to be put in the box on election day. Various safeguards are provided to make forgery impracticable.

The T. P. A. and U. C. T. organizations are said to be using their influence for this measure, as a great many traveling men must either lose their votes on election day or be occasioned a great deal of expense in getting home especially for that purpose.

Another bill has the intent of making the primary elections secret to the extent that a voter need not declare his party allegiance. This bill provides that instead of each party having a different color of ballot, that the candidates of all parties shall be on one ballot, but the voter can mark names only under one party heading; to mark under more than one will make the ballot void. It is urged in behalf of this bill that it is not desirable to insist upon a voter declaring his party allegiance and that under the law such declaration ties him up to the party for the succeeding two years so far as primary elections are concerned.

Still another bill proposes to reduce the number of elections, to make such changes that more officials are chosen at the same time and for the same length of service. Another measure has for its purpose the taking of a judiciary out of politics and provides for non-partisan judicial elections.
All of these bills have something of merit in them, and the proposed changes in the primary law seem especially commendable. Certainly still further amending of the primary law is desirable, for as it is now, this measure, which was designed supposedly to make it possible for the "people to rule," now as a matter of fact quite frequently results in defeating the real will of the people.

THE DUTIES OF THE FIVE.

A little more than four years ago when the question of adopting the commission form of government was under discussion, the people had a great deal to say about the new form and the way it worked in other cities. Particular stress was laid in that discussion on the fact that the new form meant a centralization of authority, and that for this reason, it had various advantages. There was more or less discussion of the commission form also after the new council went into office, but from that time until the present there has really not much been said about it.

Under the commission form law the executive and administrative powers, and the authority and duties of the mayor and four commissioners are divided into five departments:

First: the department of public affairs.
Second: the department of accounts and finances.
Third: the department of public health and safety.

Fourth: the department of streets and public improvements.
Fifth: the department of public property.

The mayor according to the law, by virtue of his office, becomes commissioner of public affairs. It is a duty of the council to designate the commissioners to be assigned to the other departments, and while the general duties are apparent from the name of the departments, it remains for the council to determine and to fix by ordinance the powers and duties to be performed by each department.

The people, therefore, know in advance the five general departments into which the business of the city will be divided for the next four years and in the coming election, therefore, it is the patriotic duty of each citizen to think out in his or her mind the names of the five men who seem best fitted to perform the duties of these several departments.

George W. Davis and Henry J. Rodgers are candidates for mayor; one of them during the four years will be at the head of the department of public affairs. Each voter must determine which one of these men he believes best qualified for his department.

With reference to other departments the issue is not so clearly defined, for it is uncertain, even elected, to just what department any commissioner will be assigned. So the duty of the voter, as already indicated, is to carefully consider that there are four departments which are to be under the superintendency of four out of eight men.

Which of the eight is best adapted to manage the affairs of the department of accounts and finances? Which one on the basis of knowledge and experience impresses you as adapted to the superintendency of the department of public health and safety? In the matter of streets and public improvements, which one of these eight men do you consider qualified. And in the department of public property, which includes the water and light departments, choose the one of the eight that impresses you as the right man for the job.

The eight from whom the four must be chosen are Joseph E. Brennan, Francis M. Brewer, Jerry Cox, George P. Davis, Charles R. Knollenberg, I. Edgar Martin, Joshua Vasconcellos and William F. Widmayer.

THE DRUG PROBLEM.

U. S. Public Health Service.

Drug addiction is very common in this country, and constitutes a menace to the nation, according to an article in the Public Health Reports for March 19, 1915, which reviews the efforts made to lessen the abuse of habit forming drugs and analyzes the Federal and State laws restricting or regulating the distribution and use of opium, coca, and other narcotic and habit-forming drugs.

The abuse of narcotic drugs involves economic, social, moral and public health questions that collectively constitute one of the most serious problems before the people of the United States today.

In New York and several other States, drug addiction is regarded as a disease, and these States have provided a systematic treatment for those addicted to the use of drugs, while in Michigan such a person may be adjudged incompetent and a guardian appointed. A law recently enacted in Tennessee permits the sale of narcotics to drug addicts registered according to the law. Similar laws exist in other States but the New York law for treatment of drug addicts is considered the better measure.

The principal shortcomings of the present laws are that no method of enforcement is outlined and no specific appropriations are made for their enforcement.

In order to bring about a uniformity in the enactment and enforcement of anti-narcotic laws, those who are interested in the subject should make a careful comparative study of the existing laws to determine the reasons for the inadequacy of these laws. Statistics should be compiled showing the nature and extent of the use of habit forming drugs, and earnest efforts should be made to secure uniform legislation which will prevent the misuse of such drugs.

The solution of the drug problem will be well worth the thought, time and expense required, and all who are interested in the welfare of the American people should give their support to the new Federal anti-narcotic law which aims to reduce the number of drug addicts and to remove the temptation from others.

BOOTLEGGING JOINT RAIDED BY POLICE SATURDAY

Chief Davis Swore Out Warrant Against Charles Nichols for Operating North Mauvaisterre Street Place—Man Has Government License but Claims He Secured it for "Someone Else."

Chief of Police Davis yesterday swore out a warrant against Tom Nichols charging him with conducting a bootlegging joint in the building just north of the Opera House block. The warrant was served and Nichols gave bond for his future appearance. Nichols who is a colored man who cannot read and write stutly maintains that while the government license at the place is in his name that he did not know its significance and that he was sent to Springfield for it. He claims that he was simply the janitor about the establishment.

There had been some complaints about the place and Saturday Chief of Police Davis, with Officers Eads and McGinnis were on watch the greater part of the day and counted forty men who went in at the back door of the building. Visitors were coming and going all day. Late in the afternoon the officers descended on the establishment. They found the door to the back room barred but could see through a small hole in the door men drinking from beer bottles. When entrance to the room was effected there was no occupant but Nichols. A barrel of beer was taken and there was a goodly supply in an ice chest and also two jugs partially filled with whiskey.

In a statement last night Nichols said that he had simply been employed by another party to do the janitor work. He said: "Several weeks ago this party asked me to go to Springfield and get a government license. As I cannot read or write he told me to go to a bank and have some one there sign a paper for me. I think this was an application blank for a government stamp. The party who runs the place paid my railroad fare to Springfield and back. I secured the license in my name thinking I was doing a favor for the proprietor. I paid $8.65 for it. I was told in Springfield that the stamp would protect me until July 1st. I am absolutely innocent in the matter as I had no connection with the place whatever. Only I do the janitor work. I am willing to tell the authorities all I know about it when the time comes."

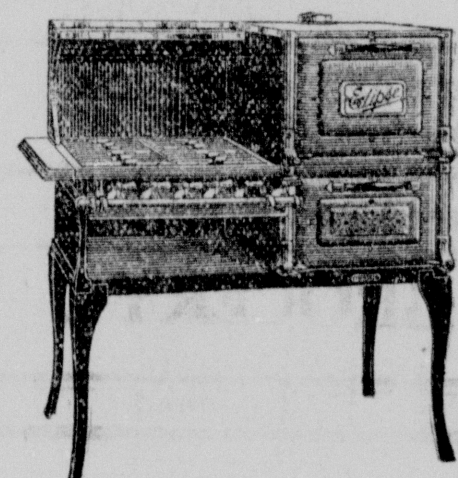

Nichols' statement on the witness stand is expected to clear up the ownership of the joint.

Miss Peak was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Peak and has many friends in Scott and Morgan counties. She removed with her parents to Missouri two or three years ago. Miss Peak had been for a number of months in failing health. Her death will bring keen regret to many as she was blessed with an ever cheerful disposition and by all who knew her was held in high esteem. She was a member of the Baptist church and was known in Winchester as a Christian worker of faith and devotion.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon in charge of Rev. D. H. Toomey, pastor of the Baptist church.

Rogers, pastor of the church, gave the funeral address. The body arrived Friday afternoon from Fairbault, Minn., where Mr. Paul died from the effect of blood poisoning. Music was furnished by the choir, with Mrs. W. H. Kinison and Miss Martha Higgins singing a duet. The flowers were cared for by Miss Amelia Hieronymus, Miss Jessie McLaughlin, Miss Anna Mund and Miss Anna Kellen. The bearers were Charles Tuck, Ray Phears, Fred Markillie, Ray Nelson, Robert Sperry and William Fath.

The Crabtree Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. James R. Crabtree was held Friday forenoon at 10 o'clock at the family residence, in the presence of a number of friends. The Rev. George W. Murray, pastor of the Baptist church of Winchester was in charge. Burial was made in the Winchester cemetery.

Dies on 94th Birthday.

Mrs. Goar leaves one daughter, Mrs. E. B. Ruark; two granddaughters, Mrs. Charles Sibert and Mrs. Watt Mosher, and a grandson, Frank Ruark.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church. The choir furnished music and the Rev. C. W. Caseley preached the sermon.

Collision Spills Flour.

NUMEROUS ELECTION REFORMS PROPOSED IN LEGISLATIVE BILLS

Absent Voting, and Non Partisan Primaries Among Provisions Suggested in Measures Before Legislature.

Springfield, Ill., April 3.—Facilitated registration absent voting, secret primaries, non partisan primaries for the selection of the judges, the short ballot and consolidated elections summarize the reforms in primary election laws now being advocated before the general assembly.

Measures covering most of these subjects already have been introduced in one or both branches of the legislature. Several more are in prospect, including a series of four bills which will be laid before the senate next week by Senator Keller, covering the matter of consolidated elections and primaries. The Keller bills are designed to reduce the number of annual elections from ten or twelve, as at present, to one or two.

The bill for facilitated registration is based upon the alleged necessity of providing greater convenience for registration and provided for the keeping open of registration offices, either in the office of the election commissioners, the county clerk or such other place as shall be provided as registration offices, for thirty days prior to the last day of registration of any election, without changing the provisions as to regular registration days, but providing the new means of registration in addition thereto.

Absent Voting Measure.
The absent voting measure provides for a system of voting by means of which the officers in charge of the preparation of the ballot shall print "Absent Voter" ballots, which may be obtained upon application some days before the election; which ballots will be so colored and secretly marked as to make it easy to detect any counterfeiting. The absent voter is required to go before a person authorized to administer oaths and in his presence, but not as to be seen by him, mark his ballot and enclose the same in an envelope provided, together with affidavit and certificate of the officers.

This ballot is returned to the proper election officials and must be in the hands of the judges and clerks of the proper precinct before the close of the polls on election day and is counted separately by the judges and clerks and reported in their returns.

Secret Primary Regulations.
The bill on secret primaries is calculated to reach the objection raised to being obliged to disclose one's party affiliations when voting at a primary and so be tied up to a political party with respect to primaries for two years. It provides for putting the names of candidates of all parties upon one ballot under distinctly party columns with notices to the elector to vote in but one party column. Voting in more than one party column invalidates the entire ballot.

The non-partisan judicial election bill, which is advocated by the Chicago Bar Association, provides for a non-partisan primary for the selection of candidates for judges and makes the two highest for each office the nominees.

The Short Ballot.
The short ballot proposition takes from all elective offices, every officer whose office is not concerned with a principle and makes such officers appointive. An exception appears as to state officers because the constitution makes all the present state officers elective. The measure on this subject makes provisions as follows:
In the state, the present state officers are elective, this being required by the constitution.
In the city, the mayor and aldermen (or commissioners) only are elective, all other city officers being appointive.

In the county, the county commissioners, board of supervisors, county judge, state's attorney, sheriff, county clerk and county treasurer all remain elective. Other county officers are appointive.
In the town, the town supervisor, town clerk and town treasurer all remain elective, other town officers being appointive.

In the judicial offices, all the judges remain elective, but the clerks are all made appointive. It is

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

Petrograd, via London, April 3.—(10:30 p. m.)—An official communication concerning the recent Russian retreat from the Memel district of east Prussia was issued tonight. It says:

"During the retirement of our troops from Memel our casualties were only 149 men including killed, wounded and missing."

Petrograd, via London, April 3.—(11 p. m.)—General Aliev has been appointed commander in chief of the army of the northern front in place of General Ruskay who retired recently on account of ill health. Since 1908 General Aliev has been chief of staff of the military district.

Constantinople, April 3.—Via London (6:10 p. m.)—The following official communication was issued today:

"No changes have taken place in the Dardanelles or the other theaters of war."

"On March 31st, a British cruiser bombarded the borough of Mowlah, at the head of the sea on the Hadjas coast and attempted to land troops. After being repulsed the cruiser returned the next day and renewed the bombardment for five hours, damaging some houses."

"The enemy again attempted to land troops but was repulsed by our troops and volunteers. The cruiser then retired. There was no loss of life on our side."

Venice, April 3.—Via London—(6:25 p. m.)—A correspondent of the Neue Freie Presse of Vienna, who is at the front, telegraphs that constantly increasing forces of Russians are making almost superhuman efforts against the center of the Austrian line in the Carpathians along a front about forty miles long.

"A violent combat has now been raging for several days without producing any change in the general situation," he writes. "The heights on the north declivities of the Carpathians now constitute the chief object of the Russian attack as they open a path to the highest ridges commanding the mountain wall."

"The Russian forces show no signs of domination in this constantly alternating fight. They seem to possess endless reserves."

Dispatches to other Vienna papers, although carefully worded and strictly censored, convey the impression that the situation in the Carpathians is a desperate one. They all dwell on the enormous reserves and strength of the Russians. The Germans are now sending great numbers of reserves to Hungary. Ordinary train service on the main lines has been suspended for the last three days on this account.

Constantinople, via Berlin to London, April 3.—(10:15 a. m.)—The following official statement was made public this evening:

"Some hostile mine sweepers made an attempt to approach the straits of the Dardanelles today but retired before our fire. Two warships which approached them unsuccessfully bombarded the straits from afar and then retreated. From the other theaters of the war no news has been received."

Paris, April 3.—(10:23 p. m.)—The official communication issued by the war office tonight says:

"Saturday at Dompierre, to the southwest of Peronne, we continued to make satisfactory progress with our mining operations."

"Near Lassigny, the Germans attacked and attempted to detach. They were stopped short by our fire as they were rallying forth from their trenches."

"In upper Alsace in the region of Burnhaupt le Haut, we repulsed two German attacks."

Petrograd, via London, April 3.—(10:55 p. m.)—The following official communication was issued tonight:

"Our offensive in the Carpathians is developing successfully. On April 1st our progress was particularly marked in the sector Volla-Michael in the direction of the Uzsok Pass. Despite the obstinate resistance by the Austrians their use of explosive bullets to a large extent and their fierce counter attacks our troops pressed them hard, capturing prisoners and machine guns, ammunition and wagons which they had abandoned."

"On Thursday in the Carpathians we took more than seven thousand men including one hundred officers prisoners and captured ten machine guns."

"In the other sectors and along the front in general there has been no particular change."

Vienna, via London, April 3.—(11:17 p. m.)—The Austrian war office this evening made public the following official communication:

"Since yesterday in the eastern Beskid range engagements have taken place only in the upper Laborca Valley and on the heights south of Vtrava."

"Fresh Russian reinforcements forced our exposed troops fighting on both sides if Clano and Berchiny Gorne to retreat somewhat."

"An attack on our positions north of Uzsok Pass was repulsed after a singularly engagement. It has been ascertained that all the Russian divisions which were before Przemyśl are now actually on the Carpathian front."

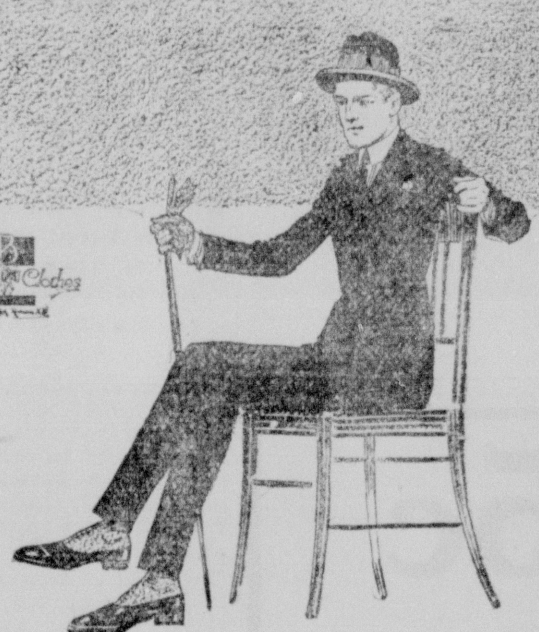

"In southeast Galicia only artillery duels have taken place."

"After the successful fighting of April 1st, calm now prevails on our positions between the Dniester and Pruth rivers."

I hereby announce that I am a candidate for road commissioner in District No. 7, township 15-10, at the election Tuesday, April 6th.

REIGN OF MUD

The weather was a thing of dread, week after week; all men complained; the clouds were always overhead, and every other hour it rained. Then dicks and alligators laughed, the bull-frog raised a cheerful sound; the rural postman, on a raft, still tried to make his weary round. There was no bottom to the road; a muddy stream, it struck the eye; six horses scarce could pull a load that one would pull when it was dry. I heard the dismal farm-creak; "We're ruined if this thing keeps on, already we are nearly broke—the profits of a year are gone." I tried to show that endless rain was what the country needed most; I talked in optimistic strain, the while I leaned against a post. "This is no time for sunshine talk," the farmers said; "It's vain, indeed, while we must watch our starving stock, because we cannot haul in feed. If you turn loose a joyous flood of language, while our hearts are sore, we'll push you headfirst in the mud, and you will dance and sing no more." And that's the luck I always have, when up against colossal grief; my sunny words don't seem a salve, my shorting does not bring relief.

BOTH PUGILISTS READY TO BATTLE FOR LIVES

FIGHT WILL TAKE PLACE IN TWENTY FOOT RING.

Willard is a Better Fighter Now Than Ever Before—Johnson is Slower Than Five Years Ago, But Observers Surmise he has not Gone Back Much.

Havana, April 3.—Forty-eight hours before their battle for the heavy-weight championship of the world Jack Johnson and Jess Willard were declared to be in as nearly perfect physical condition as their systems of training could accomplish. They are fit to fight for their lives, they say, and will step into the ring on Monday afternoon ready for the struggle whether it be short and fierce or drawn out to the limit of endurance. There is ten years difference in the age of the two men, Willard not only is the younger but has the better of the height and reach. However, Johnson is exceedingly muscular and will weigh more than he did in any previous fight. Today he probably weighed 228 pounds, but will take off three or four pounds "drying out" tomorrow and Monday morning. Willard wishes to enter the ring at 240; he is about five pounds over that now. Each will carry in to the ring from five to seven pounds of superfluous flesh, in order to have something aside from muscular energy to burn up during the struggle.

Willard is a better fighter now than ever before but the question is whether he is good enough to whip Johnson.

On the other hand it is generally agreed that Johnson is slower than he was five years ago when he fought Jeffries but many observers surmise that he has not gone back much. This has reduced the fight question to whether Willard has advanced far enough to meet Johnson going back.

A thousand sporting men here today would like the answer to that question. All realize that there is a psychological as well as a physical side to the fighting game and many believe that in that respect Johnson has the advantage. He has always been confident in entering the ring and he has shown ability to keep his head in times of stress. The Cuban public will easily pay for the battle and make up the $30,000 purse Johnson is to get, win or lose. No one knows exactly what the arrangements are with Willard but it seems certain that even should he win the championship he will receive no money until all expenses are settled and then only a percentage of the net receipts.

There is less actual betting on this contest than on any similar match in years.

Johnson notified the promoters that he was not satisfied with the plan for a nineteen foot ring which he considers too small for big men. Consequently the pugilists will battle in a twenty foot ring with a three foot extension outside the ropes.

Bout Proves a Burlesque.

A great crowd gathered at the stadium to witness an engagement which Johnson had been urged not to fulfill—the six round bout between Johnson and Sam McVey. It proved to be a burlesque.

The afternoon was cold and cloudy and the stadium was wind swept and Johnson said he was taking no chances.

Referee Jack Walsh announced tonight that he had talked to the fighters and had told them he would not decide the fight on a technicality.

It must be won in a straight, stand-up fashion, he instructed the fighters that they must protect themselves in clinches and in breaking and also must break when ordered by the referee. Otherwise straight Marquis of Queensberry rules will govern the battle.

LOWERS AMERICAN RECORD.

Fresno, Cal., April 3.—J. L. Lamport of the manual art schools of Los Angeles, clipped two fifths of a second from the American inter-scholastic record in the 220 yard low hurdles here today in the first annual track and field meet of the California federation of high schools. Lamport's time was 24 2-5 seconds. The former record of 24 4-5 seconds was made by A. Cory of Ann Arbor, Michigan, two years ago.

YALE WINS TWO EVENTS.

Philadelphia, April 3.—Under weather conditions probably never before braved in a rowing race by youthful sweep oarsmen of American colleges, Yale today won both the varsity and junior eight-oared shell events from the University of Pennsylvania over the one mile 550 yards course on the Schuylkill river. Each of the New Haven crews finished two lengths in the lead.

HORSE AND ELECTRIC

Yesterday as Mrs. B. W. Smith was driving down West State street in her electric car she collided with a horse and buggy driven by William McGinnis of Woodson. The latter was going north on West street and the accident took place near Gilber's pharmacy. Mrs. Smith is a careful driver but was unable to stop her car in time to prevent a collision which resulted in the horse being pushed against the curb and sustaining a broken leg.

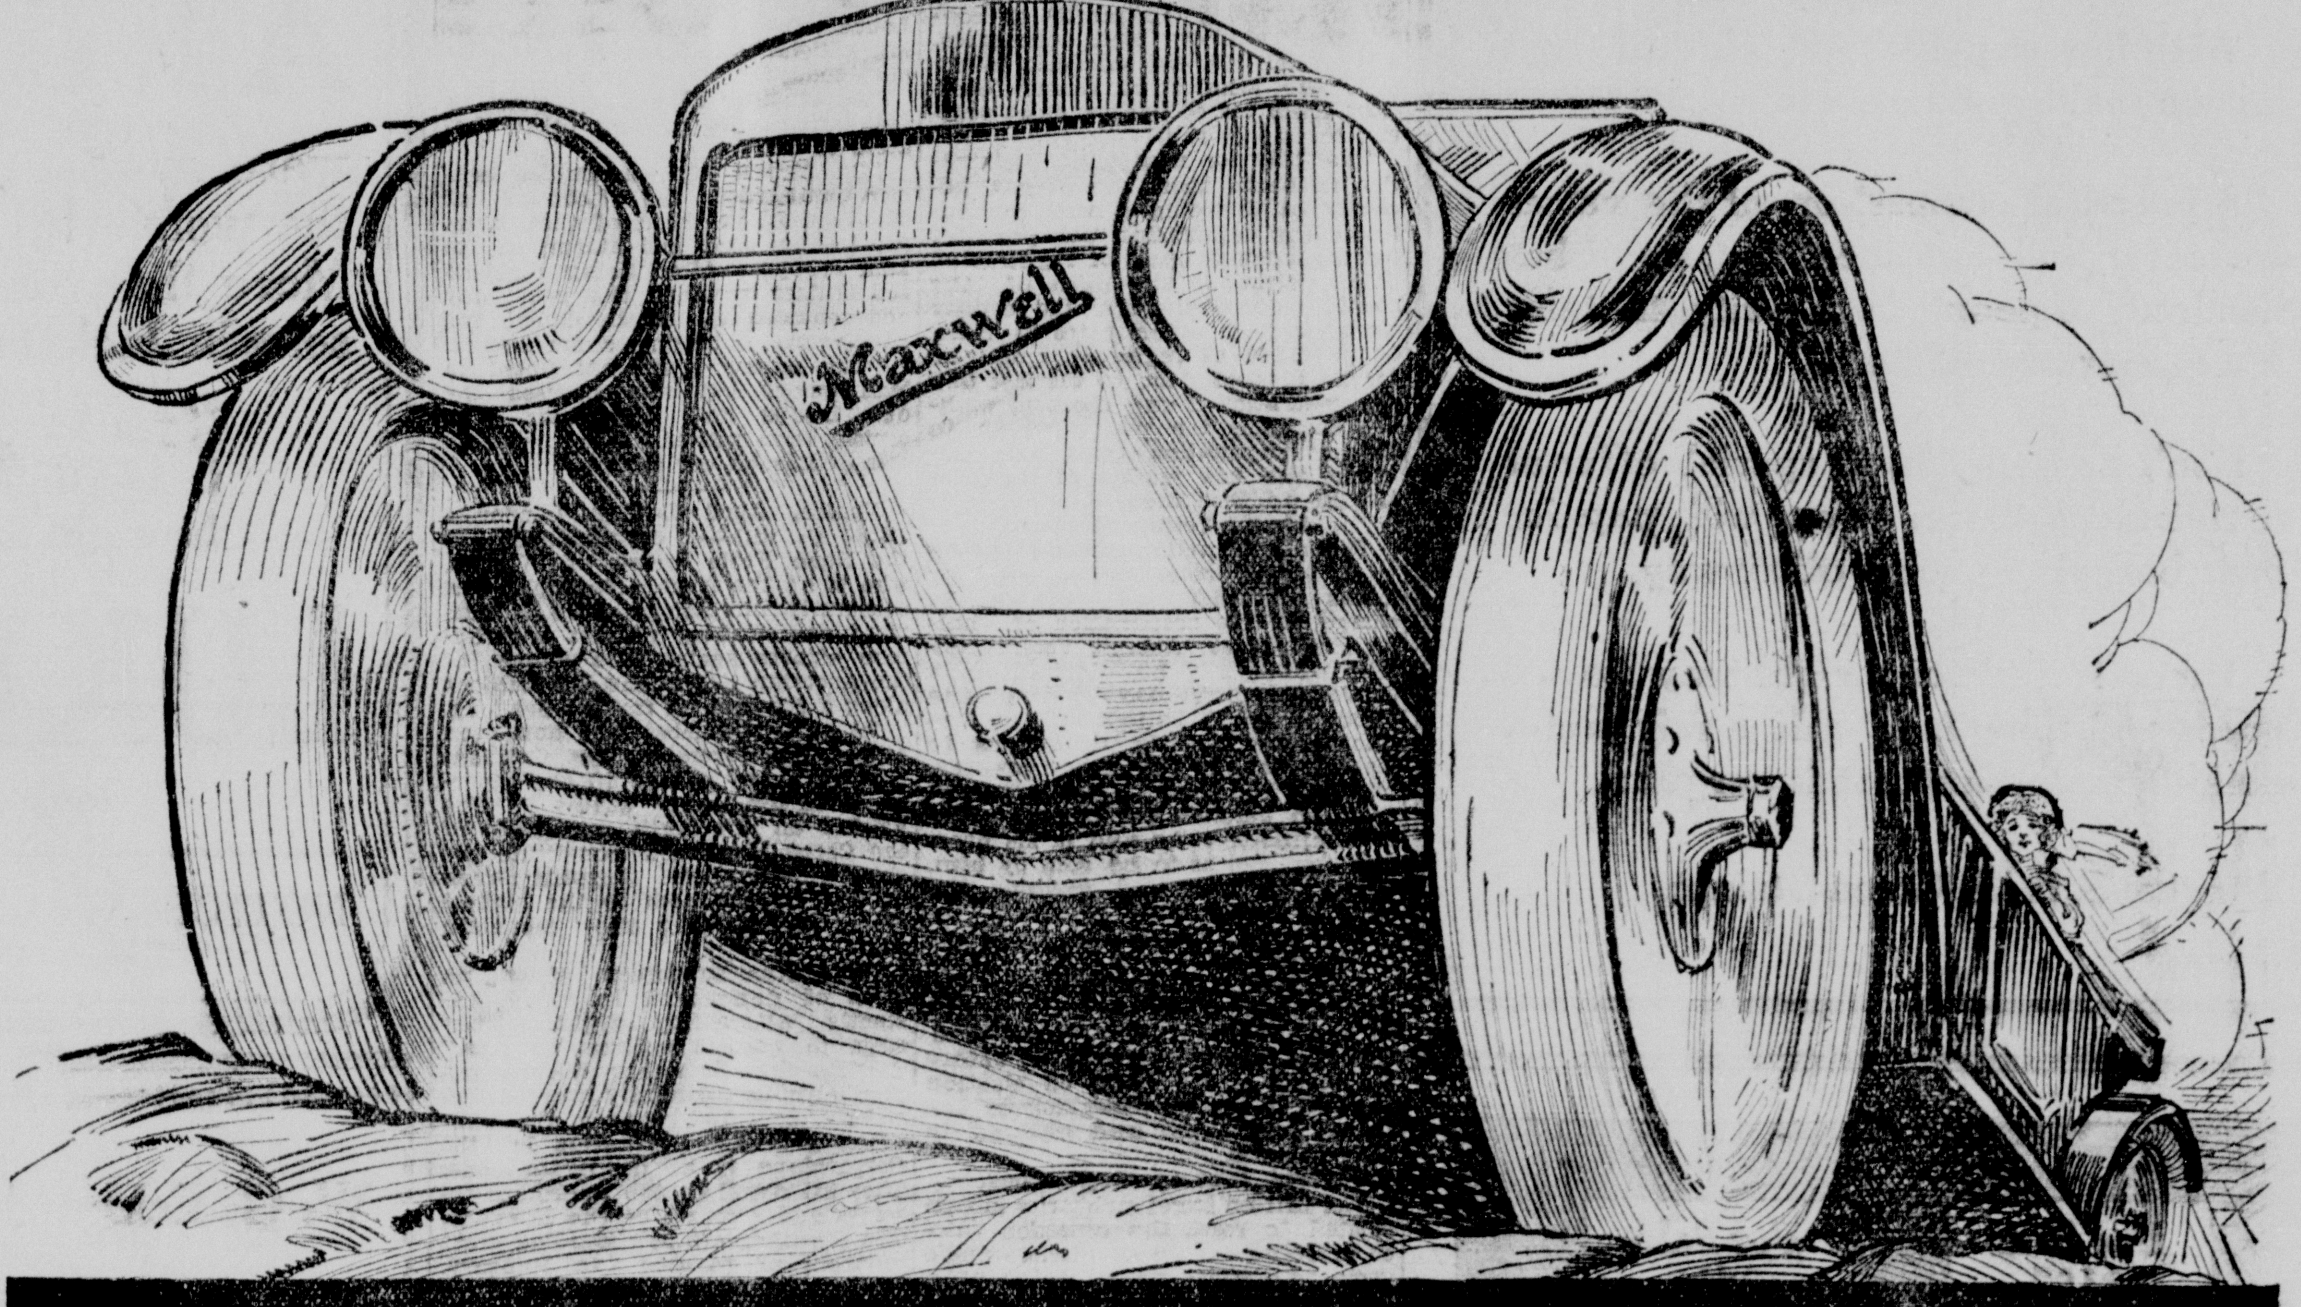

Dr. J. H. Hargrave, assistant to Dr. Willerton, removed the horse to the Willerton barn where the broken leg was put in a plaster cast.

Mr. Smith at once called on Mr. McGinnis and offered to settle for the horse at a fair valuation.

LICENSED TO MARRY.

Maxwell

"The Wonder Car"

You can own an exact duplicate of "Wild Bill" Turner's or Billy Carlson's record-breaking Maxwells

Think of owning one of these same Maxwells—think of driving it wherever you want to—over any kind of roads—up any kind of hills, wherever four wheels can go, the same car for $695.

Remember, every 1915 Maxwell is an exact duplicate of the regular stock Maxwell Touring Cars in which "Wild Bill" Turner broke the world's record up Mt. Hamilton, 21 1/2 miles in 48 1/2 minutes, beating the world's record by 16 1/2 minutes, and "Billy" Carlson broke the world's record up Mt. Wilson, California, making nine miles (up an elevation of 6,000 feet) in 29 minutes and 1 second, beating the previous world's record by 13 minutes.

That's the kind of hill-climber you get when you get a Maxwell.

Now about speed and endurance—here are some recent Maxwell Racing Car records:—

Barney Oldfield in a Maxwell Racing Car broke the world's non-stop record at Corona, California, for 300 miles, averaging 86.3 miles per hour. Think of it—not a stop made!

Then, right on top of this marvelous motor record, along came "Billy"

Carlson in his Maxwell Racer and made still another 300 miles non-stop record in the San Diego race. Again a Maxwell Racer ran 300 miles without a stop!

These Maxwell Racing Cars are built by the same Designers, the same Chief Engineer, that build the regular Maxwell Cars; and the same Maxwell Laboratory Tested Steel is used in them that is used in the regular stock Maxwell Touring Cars.

But, aside from hill-climbing and speed, power and endurance records, here are some of the facts about Maxwell comfort,—Maxwell special features,—Maxwell beauty and Maxwell service.

Read This List of Expensive Features. The 1915 Maxwell Has These Features And Many Others.

Attractive Streamline Body

Pure streamline body, graceful crown fenders, with all rivets concealed. All the grace, style and "snap" that you will find in any of the highest priced cars.

A High-Tension Magneto

Nearly all the high priced cars have high tension magnetos. A high tension magneto gives positive ignition. The Simms magneto, with which the Maxwell is equipped, is recognized as one of the best magnetos made.

Left Side Drive—Central Control

Left side drive with gear shifting levers in center of driving compartment—center control—has been accepted by leading makers of expensive automobiles as the safest and most comfortable for the driver; that is why the Maxwell has it. The Maxwell is so easy to drive and control that a child can handle it.

Three-Speed Sliding Gear Transmission

All high priced cars have a sliding gear transmission. It is costly to make, but it is the best. If the motor has the power, sliding gears will pull the car out of any mud or sand. The Maxwell has a three-speed selective sliding gear transmission because Maxwell engineers do not consider any other type to be worthy of the Maxwell car.

Double-Shell Radiator with Shock Absorbing Device

The Maxwell radiator is of handsome design, gracefully curved, and it is built to be trouble proof. It is also expensive double shell type and has ample cooling capacity. The radiator is mounted to the frame by means of a shock absorbing device on each side, which relieves the radiator of all twists and distortions of the frame, caused by roughness of the road. The shock absorbing device also minimizes the possibility of radiator leaks.

The Roomy Full 5-Passenger Body Adjustable Front Seat

The 1915 Maxwell has a full grown 5-passenger body. The front seat is adjustable, you can move it three inches forward or backward. This makes the car really comfortable for the driver. No cramped legs for tall people or uncomfortable reaching for short people. Most drivers' seats are made to fit anyone—no fit no one.

Low "Up-keep" Carburetor

The carburetor used on the Maxwell was especially designed for it after long and severe tests under every conceivable condition. Economy tours conducted by hundreds of dealers and owners in different sections of the country have proved its efficiency. Its quick response to throttle and its extremely low consumption of gasoline. It has been termed the "low up-keep" carburetor.

Irreversible Steering Gear

The greatest margin of safety has been provided in the steering gear of the 1915 Maxwell. The Maxwell irreversible steering mechanism is of the expensive worm-and-gear type and its superiority over every other type lies in its many adjustments. At no time is more than a fourth of the bearing surface of the gear which operates the worm in use. When needed, a new bearing surface may be had by adjusting the gear a quarter of a turn. In short, the Maxwell steering gear has four times the adjustment of any other kind.

Heavy Car Comfort

What surprises most people is the smooth, buoyant riding qualities of the Maxwell. The spring suspension of the 1915 Maxwell is the same costly combination of long semi-elliptical front springs and the three-quarter elliptic rear springs that is used on most heavy weight, high priced cars. The Maxwell offers you every essential of the highest priced machines at a fifth of their cost.

Germ's Can't Stay With This Treatment

No Impurities Can Retain A Foothold—They're Driven Out.

The action of S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, is direct from the moment it enters the stomach. Unlike food that must be acted upon by the digestive juices, S. S. S. goes at once into the blood, and in less than five minutes has traversed the entire circulation.

It now rapidly spreads its medicinal action in the fine network of blood vessels and is like giving the blood a thorough bath to overcome eczema, blood risings, boils and other eruptive conditions. It can not harm any part of the system. It does not lodge in the joints as do mercury, arsenic and other minerals frequently to be found in blood remedies. It is a natural medicine for the blood, just as essential to health as food. It is a willing witness to its wonderful power to overcome blood troubles. You can obtain S. S. S. in almost any drug store in the U. S., a significant fact as to its worth and its sterling reputation. Get a bottle today. It will do you good. Write to The Swift Specific Co., 104 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., if the directions with the bottle do not fully cover your case.

LAND O'NOD STORIES

BILL HELPS THE BIRDS

So much snow has fallen during the night that the White Forest was buried under a soft, white blanket a foot thick, and in places great drifts were piled up as high as your head. But that didn't bother Billy. By no means, no sir, no. A bit of it, for he was bundled up as snug as a bug in a rug, and as he trudged through the big woods he whistled as merrily as a lark.

"Go, but I'm hungry," said Billy, and just then he spied a hickory nut in the snow at the foot of an old stump. But when he picked it up, he found a clean little hole had been cut in the shell and the kernel taken out.

"Now who could have done that?" said Billy to himself, "and where did this nut come from, I should like to know."

Then he saw there was a small hole in the side of the stump, and thrusting in his hand, what do you suppose he found? Well sir, you would never guess, so I might as well tell you. There was about a quart of nuts in that stump, but when Billy finished filling his pockets, nary a nut was left.

"Now I can have a feast," chuckled Billy, and then he started for home as fast as his chubby little legs would carry him. But before he had gone very far he heard the most awful racket in the branches of a big oak, and there the Frisky Red-shoulder, chattering and scolding away at a great rate. There was no use talking, Frisky was the maddest little fellow in all the White Forest, and generally he is the best natured old rascal in the world. But now he was using such terrible language that Busybody the Bluejay, who had come rushing up to find out what was the matter, flew away in disgust, and Busybody, you know, swears more than all the rest of the Little People put together.

"What under the sun is the matter?" asked Billy.

"Frisky has been robbed," replied Tinker Teedle Toe, the merry little elf, who flew up just at that moment and alighted on Billy's shoulder.

"Robbed! Why who could have robbed him?" exclaimed Billy.

"I'm sure I don't know," said Tinker, nodding his head until the wreny copper kettle he wore for a hat bobbed up and down at a great rate. "But some one broke into his house back there in the old stump and stole his winter's supply of nuts."

"Why I-I-I," stammered Billy, and then he stopped, for he remembered his pockets were full of nuts, and he suddenly realized that it was he who had robbed Frisky. "I didn't know those nuts belonged to Frisky, honest I didn't," he said, two big tears rolling down his cheeks.

"Now, now Billy Boy there's nothing to cry about," comforted Tinker, who could never bear to see any one unhappy. "We can put the nuts in Frisky's snug little nest and everything will be hunky dory again, but just remember it is mighty hard for the Little People to get enough to eat during the winter when the ground is covered with snow and everything is frozen up. Frisky makes out fairly well, for in the fall he stores up enough nuts to last him through the winter, but it is different with the birds, for there are no insects or berries for them to eat."

"Mother scatters bread crumbs in the yard every Sunday morning," said Billy, "and the birds have a regular feast."

"That's a mighty good idea," said Tinker, "but what do you suppose the birds do the rest of the week?"

"I don't know," answered Billy. "I never thought of that."

"Well they often go to bed hungry," said the merry little elf. "Now how would you like it if you had to go to bed without your supper?"

"I wouldn't like it at all," replied Billy.

"Neither do the birds. Now I have a bright idea. Although it is a long time after Christmas, what do you say if we give the birds a Christmas Tree?"

"Yes sir, a Christmas Tree. Only instead of trimming it with bright balls and tinsel, we will trim the branches with crusts of bread, little pieces of suet and an apple or two, and on the snow under the tree we'll scatter a handful of grain. What do you say?"

"Why that will be bully fun," agreed Billy, "and if you will wait for me, I'll run home and ask Mother for the things."

So Billy ran home as fast as his legs would carry him, and before long was back again with a big bundle of good things for the feathered dwellers of the White Forest. Tinker had picked out a small spruce tree that grew in a sheltered spot, and in no time at all they had the branches trimmed with big crusts of bread and pieces of beef fat.

Busybody the Bluejay, had been watching them from the branches of a nearby oak, and as Billy and Tinker sat down on a log to rest, he flew up to see what had been going on. And when he found the branches loaded down with goodies, maybe he didn't have to rest. Then when he had eaten until he couldn't eat another crumb, he flew off through the woods, spreading the good news to all the Little People. The birds came by twos and threes, and before Billy started for home a whole flock of hungry but happy feathered songsters were gathered about the Christmas Tree, enjoying the presents tied to its branches.

"I wish you had thought of this scheme sooner," said Billy, "but now that I know how much the birds enjoy their Christmas tree, I'll keep the branches filled with new presents every day. And he did too.

STEREOPHONIC TALK BY PRINCIPAL STONE

Japan to be Theme Before Class Monday Morning—The Public Invited.

On Monday Mr. Stone will give to the commercial geography and physical geography classes of the high school a travel and industrial talk on Japan. The public are invited to these talks. The seventy-two colored slides used to illustrate the travelogue will be shown at four class periods. The periods begin at 9:35, 11:15, 1:25, and 3:15. The place is the science lecture room on the third floor of the high school building. The city of Tokyo with its shipping quarter, emperor's palace, house of peers will be the starting point. Next will come views of Japanese soldiers and parades, cherry blossoms, how the Japanese heat their houses, see their peculiar fashions, learn how guests are served in a hotel, a demonstration of the use of chopsticks, a Japanese bed. The sacred road to Nikko, the broken Torii, the bell tower and the sculptured monsters guarding the gates come next. 81 miles northwest from Tokyo we come to Kiryu and its silk weaving plants which we examine thoroughly. The views of the silkworks are exceptionally fine. The rice industry is made clear by numerous slides. Other slides taken at random from the collection show Fujiyama, threshing scenes, bamboo basket factory, the great bell at Kioto, blacksmithing, making of shoes, a potter's wheel, the painting of pottery, lumber yards, gathering and firing tea, jirikishas, pagodas, volcanoes and hot springs.

The high school has a very good stereophonic. It is the desire of the teachers that this be used as frequently as possible to teach by visual instruction many of the points which can be learned so quickly and thoroughly in this manner. The teachers also desire to have the parents see the regular work of the school. If parents will come to the high school and ask for the class work in which they are interested the principal and teachers will willingly show what we are trying to do, says Mr. Stone.

A Rabbit Proves Dandruff the true cause of Hair Loss

One of the earliest experiments following the discovery of the contagious nature of dandruff was by Doctor Sabouraud of the Pasteur Institute, Paris. This doctor inoculated a rabbit with human dandruff germs and the rabbit in time was completely denuded of its fur.

But what to use is more of interest—this experiment proved that dandruff kills the life and beauty of the hair and causes it to fall out.

Fortified Tires Now in the Light

The supreme test of a tire is to hold top place—the place in the sun—and for years. Goodyear tires have done that. Long they have led, both in sales and prestige.

Men expect much of the top place tire. They look for a superior in it. Any seeming fault, due to mishap or misuse, becomes a defect in this glare.

But Goodyear Fortified Tires, after years in this light, hold higher place than ever. Last year men bought 1,479,863 Goodyears of the pleasure-car type alone. That's about one tire for every car in use.

Who Is Wrong?

Is it the Goodyear user, whose choice is confirmed by some 400,000 others? Or is it the man who still assumes that another tire is better?

Isn't best average service, as proved by Goodyear supremacy, the right way to judge a tire?

Lower Prices

On February 1 Goodyear made the third big price reduction in two years. The three total 45%. Yet the tires are constantly bettered. In five costly ways—each exclusive to Goodyear—our Fortified Tires excel any other tire built. And each is a great trouble-saver. They mean for you tire content.

They mean most for your money, because of our matchless output. For your own sake, try them. The following Goodyear Service Stations will supply you:

LOCAL PEOPLE TO GIVE MUSICAL COMEDY SKULE.

Knights of Columbus and Friends to Stage Play Directed by Mr. Renalle.

In a candid criticism of the Musical Comedy "Skule", written and arranged by H. Clarke Renalle and presented by a large cast composed entirely of local amateurs at Lincoln, Illinois, The Lincoln Times-Courier says: "Skule" is undoubtedly one of the most pretentious offerings ever attempted by amateur talent and came as a delightful surprise to those who witnessed the performance at the Majestic theatre.

"The first act which portrays an old time school, with an eccentric Dutch teacher, is chuck full of good clean comedy which kept the audience in a continual ripple of laughter; the twenty pupils sustaining the various characters in a manner which would be creditable to many professionals. * * The second part, showing the 'Reception of the Alumni on the lawn of the old Professor's Country Home' proved a scenic gem.

"This act was musical comedy in the truest sense of the word and consisted of a large number of up-to-date popular songs to each of which was fitted a delightful dancing chorus introducing some of the most difficult and prettiest steps from the latest society dances. The credit of this act is entirely due to Mrs. Renalle, who has welded together in a most perfect harmonious blending a delightful Pot-Pourri of music, song and dance which could not fail to please the most fastidious.

"Without taking into consideration the remarkably short time spent in rehearsals, about ten days, the Renalles can certainly credit themselves with having produced something real worth while, or as our contemporary the Porcia Star says, 'In having produced an amateur performance with a professional finish.'

Mr. and Mrs. Renalle will produce his highly spoken of comedy, "Skule" at the Grand Opera House, Wednesday, April 14th, under the auspices of Jacksonville Council No. 868, Knights of Columbus, with a cast composed entirely of local people. Rehearsals have already commenced and great interest is being taken by the Knights and their friends to make this one of the most successful affairs of the season.

VACCINATED HOGS SAFE AFTER TWENTY-ONE DAYS

Animals That Pass Through This Period Declared Absolutely Immune.

Frank Hunter of Swift & Co., is in the city the guest of Dr. Charles E. Scott. He is associated also with the serum company which has a plant near East St. Louis. The company there has a thousand-acre farm where from one to three thousand hogs are constantly kept for the purpose of producing serum and vaccine. Mr. Hunter believes that the preparation of serum has now reached practically a proven and safe stage and he and his associates are constantly advocating that the vaccination of hogs be counted as a general expense in their raising and that the vaccination be done at weaning time when the cost will be the least for the serum and the danger of loss at the lowest point. The experiments made have been so satisfactory that the company now makes the offer that after a period of twenty-one days following vaccination by the double treatment, if the hogs are placed in contact with others known to be sick with cholera, and become affected, they will pay for all losses. This seems like a pretty strong guaranty of immunity, but the company claims that hogs on their own farm which have taken the treatment are constantly subjected to infection, and that they now positively know that vaccinated hogs remaining healthy are permanently immune.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF CHAUTAUQUA DIRECTORS

The directors of the chautauqua held an important meeting Friday evening and transacted a lot of routine business. Among other things they decided to make an effort to meet representatives of the various fraternal societies of the city Friday evening and confer with them regarding a special society day at the chautauqua.

It was decided to furnish a tent for the special use of farmers' organizations or symposium and have at all times something going on for the benefit of farmers, addresses, talks, conferences and the like.

F. J. Heintz was instructed to select a committee to have this matter in hand during the chautauqua.

"THE CHILDREN OF THE GHETTO"

Featuring Walton Lackaye at the Grand Monday Night

created the original role on the speaking stage, makes an appeal that grips the heart, throttles the throat and brings tears of sympathy even to the most sophisticated eyes. At the very outset a lump begins to form in your throat when the good old God fearing Israelite takes the coat off his back to cover the cold chilled frame of one of his flock. Throughout the play Reb Shemuel bears the burdens of Israel with a heart full of love toward all and malice toward none. Even when his head is bowed in sorrow, his belief in the wisdom and righteousness of the Lord is unshaken. He bears his grief with a melting fortitude.

His story is emblematic of the story of Israel and his sons. The atmosphere of the Jewish home, the touching comedy-drama of Jewish life and the sacred and serious purpose of the right-living Jew has been defined and delicately visualized on the screen with rugged fidelity and a strength of characterization almost startling in dramatic realism and intensity.

The story of "The Children of the Ghetto" as conveyed by the William Fox production of the great Zangwill masterpiece produced by Frank Powell vibrates with human emotion. Reb Shemuel, the old rabbi, played by Wilton Lackaye who

THERE is a feeling of confidence, and perfectly legitimate self assurance that comes to the man who has his suit tailored to order--made to fit just himself, that can be attained in no other way. The correctly tailored man finds himself "at home" in any company.

ILLINOIS STATE NEWS

Man Electrocuted—Ned Aldina, aged 13, of near Danville, was electrocuted this evening in attempting to climb through a wire fence. A tree which was cut down stuck a high tension electric wire and carried it against the wire fence, which was heavily charged.

Pipe Organ for Church—A contract has been signed for a Kilgan pipe organ to be installed in the First Baptist church at Roodhouse by May 1st. An alcove will have to be built onto the southeast corner of the church to accommodate the instrument.

Automatic Telephones—Charles Coffman, manager of the National Telephone and Electric company announced yesterday that twenty-five automatic telephones will be placed in as many up-town business houses in Clinton. An automatic switchboard showing the manner of operation will be installed.

Dies From Accident—Mrs. W. F. Younker, residing near Edinburg, is dead as the result of an accident Tuesday. She was driving a team, which became frightened at an automobile and ran away, throwing her heavily to the ground. Although the motorist, whose name was not ascertained, attempted to stop the runaway, his efforts were futile.

Needham Residence Burned—The residence of Elijah Needham, former postmaster, was burned to the ground last night at Virginia, together with the greater part of the contents. The loss is $12,000. The fire is believed to have originated from a defective flue. The work of the fire department was hampered by lack of water.

Delinquency in Tax—Showing a delinquency of $209,803.43, Tax Collector C. A. Regnold surrendered the tax books of Decatur township to County Treasurer J. F. Schroll Thursday forenoon. On the books from the outside townships there was a total delinquency of approximately $22,000.

Woman Shoots Man—Cherry Coffey, aged 22, a well known farmer residing near Virden, who was shot early Thursday morning by Minnie Buchanan, died at 11 o'clock Friday morning at the St. John's hospital, Springfield. Coroner Clarence Rhodes is conducting a rigid investigation and the inquest will be held Monday.

Itney for Taylorville—The Itney bus will soon be a feature of the life of Taylorville. Tom Eason, the motorman of the Taylorville street railway, has been offered a position as driver of a bus with the company. The company which wishes to install the system there is a Hillsboro concern and its representative was in Taylorville Friday making plans for a similar bus.

New Opera House at Havana—The new $25,000 Pullen opera house, erected by Dr. L. G. Pullen of this city, will be thrown open to the public Monday. The handsome new structure, of dark vitrified brick and Bedford stone, is as near fireproof as possible, a beautiful structure with a seating capacity of six hundred and modern in every detail.

Had Narrow Escape—The levee near the elevator at Naples was the scene of an exciting shipwreck. Mr. Duer of Meredosia had brought two traveling men to Naples in his launch, and had started back when the waves washed into his boat and began filling very rapidly. He was about midway of the river. Mr. Steinbaker and Mr. Snow went to his assistance and reached him in time to save his life, as he was almost helpless with cold.

Woman as Tax Collector—Shelby county's only woman tax collector has completed her work and made settlement with County Treasurer Samuel L. Tilley. This is Miss Ella Leighty of Tower Hill, elected a year ago in a spirited contest with woman nominees on two other tickets in her township. Miss Leighty handled the work very satisfactorily, found the task a pleasant and remunerative one.

Hoboes Must Move—"April is here now," said Desk Sergeant Tim Collins of the police department of Decatur. "The sun is beginning to shine like it meant it, the days are getting warmer and the hoboes must move on." During the winter when the weather was extremely cold some of the men were allowed to stay as many as three or four nights before they were asked to proceed on their journey but after today each man will be instructed that he must get out of town the morning after his first night here.

To Abandon the Township H. S.—Next Tuesday, April 6, there will be submitted to the voters of Virden township a question that will continue the Virden Township High school or which will abandon the idea. That it has been decided at a former time to establish a Township High school does not matter; that a board of education has been elected a couple of times does not matter; that a levy has been made to purchase the site for the building (which was formerly voted on) does not matter.

To Be Memorial Event—An event that will go down in the history of Illinois as one of the most significant ever held in connection with the death of Abraham Lincoln will be the first annual memorial service in honor of the 50th anniversary of the death of Abraham Lincoln on Thursday, April 15. The service will be held at 7:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, in Springfield, and will be attended by the Sons of the American Revolution, the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Grand Army of the Republic.

Establishes Seniority—A decision from General Superintendent A. P. Titus, just handed down, establishes the seniority of J. R. Stephenson as dispatcher and he will remain at the Roodhouse office as third trick man. It will be recalled that when the Roodhouse office was opened a year ago that there was some controversy regarding seniority. Stephenson, who was a trick man in the Bloomington office, maintaining that he was senior to J. E. Woods, of the Kansas City office. As both landed tricks, the controversy was held in abeyance until the present time.

Basketball at New Berlin—In a hard fought basketball game on the New Berlin floor, the Berlin girls defeated the girls' team of the New Berlin high school by a score of 18 to 9.

The New Berlin team worked hard to come out with the large end of the score, but were outclassed by the Berlin girls, who showed their superiority in both passing and basket shooting. Nellie and Cora Corrigan were easily the stars of the game, the former scoring 15 out of the 18 points, and the latter showed her skill in guarding by keeping down the score of her opponents.

Herbert Smith is at home visiting his mother Mrs. Constance Smith and sister, Mrs. J. Wear Elliott a short time. He says an amateur photographer of Cincinnati went to a cemetery Christmas day and made a picture of a part of the landscape and when the plate was developed there appeared on the upper corner a full figure picture of the Savior with halo about the head.

Mr. Smith says there seems to be absolute proof that the story is authentic. The photographer says the picture of the Redeemer came there in a manner wholly unknown to him and that he was not even aware of his presence till his attention was called to it. The picture has been enlarged and is being sold by a prominent art store at a rapid rate.

SHORTAGE OF MINISTERS

WIDOW FIGHTS FOR MILLION DOLLARS.

Newport, R. I., April 3.—Mrs. Annie E. Davis, widow of the famous Egyptologist, Theodore M. Davis, who died in February at the Miami, Fla., home of Secretary Bryan, will begin on Monday her fight for a million dollars, which her husband agreed to give her. The will of the famous collector of antiquities will be probated on Monday. Mrs. Davis has notified the beneficiaries that she will file a suit to establish the agreement by which she was to receive $1,000,000.

Involved in the proceedings is the disposition of the famous collection of Egyptian antiquities bequeathed to the Metropolitan Museum of Arts of New York. This collection includes the mummy of the "heretic king", Amenhotep IV., and other priceless relics of Egyptian civilization.

The will of the late Mr. Davis provides only $100,000 for his widow, who will endeavor to prove the existence of an agreement whereby she was to receive a million. Mrs. Davis claims the investments of the estate are not sufficient to meet certain requests. Mrs. Davis has offered to give $50,000 out of her million to aid the Museum to purchase the Davis collection. Mr. Davis made several journeys to Egypt, where he uncovered the tombs of the famous kings. The many relics he secured, including the famous mummy, are on exhibition in New York and will remain at the museum there if Mrs. Davis' offer is accepted.

H. R. HART LEAVES COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE FOR PRIVATE BUSINESS

Will Devote Time to the Management of Arcade—Carl Boruff to Fill Vacancy.

Saturday, H. R. Hart, who has been a deputy in the office of County Clerk Boruff for nearly five years, severed his connection with the office, and, beginning tomorrow, will devote his time exclusively to the Arcade furniture house of which he is the proprietor. Mr. Boruff has appointed this brother, Carl Boruff, as deputy to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Hart's resignation. Mr. Hart established the Arcade more than year ago and the business has developed in a very satisfactory way. It was his intention to sever his connection with the clerk's office some months ago, but the resignation has been delayed from one cause or another. His services in the court house have been highly valued by Mr. Boruff and his resignation was therefore accepted with regret.

Mr. Hart had years of experience in the furniture and undertaking business before coming to Jacksonville from Franklin, and the growth of the Arcade has given proof of his general knowledge of the business and his understanding of the Jacksonville field. He carries a large stock and anyone who visits the Arcade finds that it is well selected and has been purchased in such a way that very moderate prices are named on very high quality goods. Otis Jolly has been the manager of the Arcade for Mr. Hart and will continue to devote his time there, although Mr. Hart will of course now be at the head of the business. Carl Boruff, who enters upon his duties of deputy clerk, is familiar with office work and will no doubt prove a valuable assistant in the efficient force there. Mr. Boruff is a resident of Murrayville, although he has been in Canada for the past year or two. He has had experience in bookkeeping work and is trained for the position he is to assume.

BOWLING ALLEY.

Will be open for business, April 7th. Special attention given to ladies. Your patronage solicited. Otto M. Schumm, Prop.

WOODSON RESIDENTS CAN VOTE IN ROAD ELECTION

A number of people, resident in Woodson, have erroneously had the idea that the law had made some change which would prevent them from voting in the road district election next Tuesday. States Attorney Tilton was consulted in the matter Saturday and he advised the questioners that the residents of the village certainly have the right to vote in the coming election.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES.

The art exhibition is proving to be one of the most helpful of all the numbers in the Artists' course. Up to the present time over 1700 visitors have seen the pictures and a number of the Woman's clubs of the city have availed themselves of the opportunity to hold the meetings in the rooms where the exhibit is being held.

The Dramatic club have chosen "Sherwood" by Alfred Noyes. This play will be given the early part of May or during commencement week.

The party given by the town girls to the faculty last Monday afternoon was a unique affair. An informal program was given by Mr. Stearns, Miss Marceline Armstrong, and Miss Edith Hillier. After this an egg hunt took place, the winners being Miss Ames, first prize and Mr. Stearns, second prize.

About 150 of the students are spending the brief Easter vacation at home or with friends within easy reaching distance of Jacksonville. Mr. P. M. Ferris of Danville, is visiting his daughter, Miss Adelaide. The mid semester grades for the academy students are being gotten out.

MERMAIDS RACE AT FRISCO.
 San Francisco, April 3.—The first swimming meet of the season will be held tomorrow at Surf Beach, and all entries are girl swimmers.

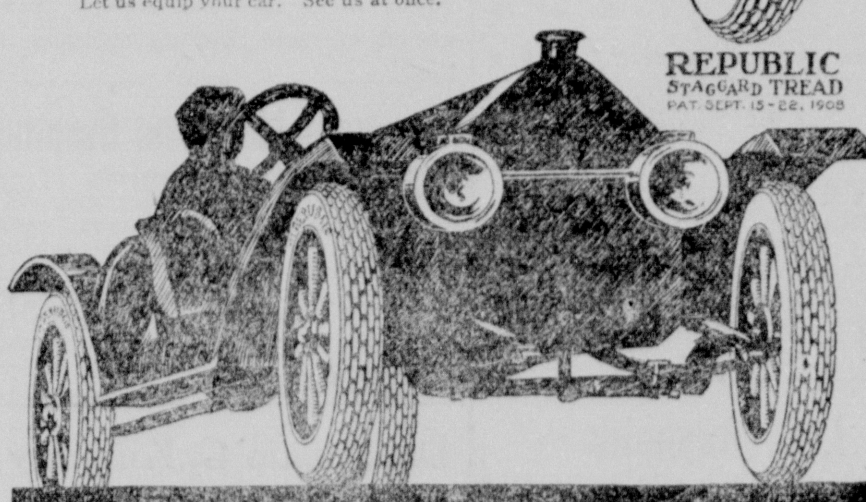

It is the first big meet under the Amateur Athletic Union, in which men are barred. Miss Dorothy Becker, who recently defeated Miss Ruth Stacker, the champion of Honolulu, will undoubtedly perform. She may go after the records in several events.

REPUBLIC STAGGARD TREAD TIRES

Ride in safety over slippery pavements

You men who are often compelled to "let her out" can indulge in bursts of speed with less fear of skidding and slewing. The long, sturdy studs (six rows of them) in the Staggard Tread give your car a good "purchase" on slippery pavements and make skidding an almost negligible factor.

There's double mileage in the Original, Effective Non-skid Tread, too. The studs form an extra tread over the ordinary, plain tread so that you really have two wearing surfaces. Let us equip your car. See us at once.

WILL HONOR FOUNDER OF GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC

Dr. Stephenson Wrote Ritual of the Order—First Post Mastered in April 6, 1866—Bronze Tablet in Memory of Founder.

Tuesday, April 6th, 1866, the Grand Army of the Republic was first organized and instituted at Springfield by Major Benjamin F. Stephenson, former surgeon of the 14th Infantry. Dr. Stephenson wrote the ritual of the order and Lieut. Phelps went to Decatur where he knew of a printing office run entirely by veterans of the war and had it printed. He also interested many in Decatur in the work and they applied for charter number one, which was granted and the post was mustered in, April 6th, 1866.

Adjutant General Woods wrote the declaration of principles, the constitution and by-laws, the charter and report forms and other documents. Dr. Stephenson was Commander-in-chief and General Woods, Adjutant General and they went to work organizing in other states and various parts of Illinois. For some reason the order didn't flourish at first and for some time little was heard of it. The writer well remembers hearing Captain Bowen of this city suggest that the old soldiers should have some kind of an organization and that he would like to fill in its organization, but nothing came of the suggestion. Later on the Grand Army was reconstituted and since that time it has gone steadily in the even tenor of its way but it must decrease till finally the last one is left to tell the tale.

The order reached high water mark in 1889 when it numbered in Illinois 36,824 but in 1912 death had decimated the ranks till the number was only 14,328.

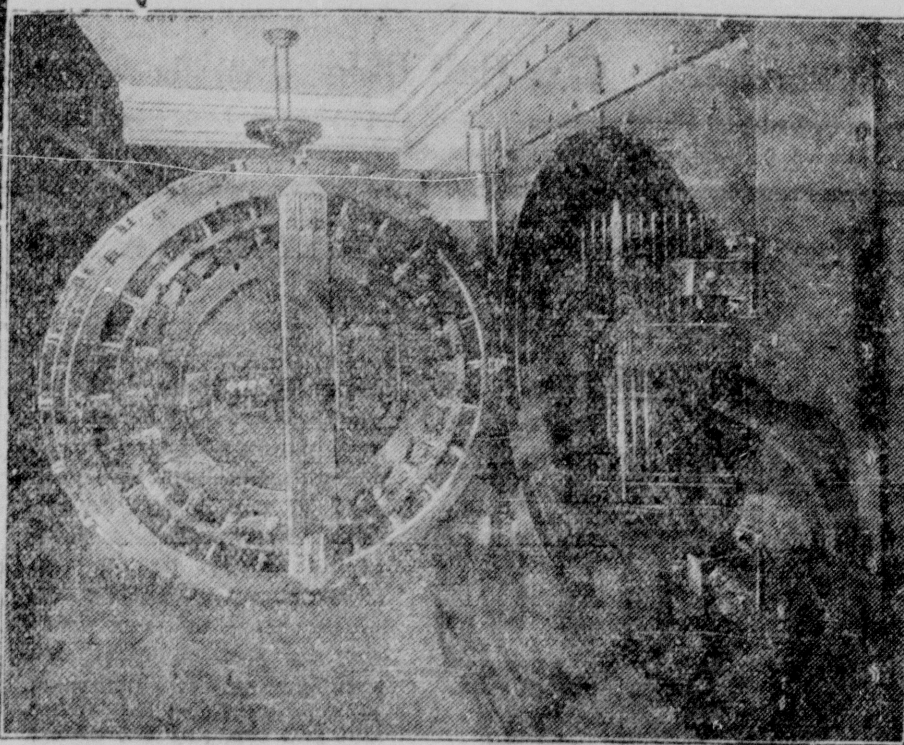

It is generally conceded that to Dr. Stephenson belongs the credit of starting the idea of the order. The W. R. C. of Illinois have placed a bronze tablet in Decatur in the place where the order had its birthplace and Tuesday, the 6th, it is to be dedicated. All members of the Grand Army and W. R. C. are urgently invited to attend. Many eminent persons are expected among them Bishop Samuel Fallows, Department Commander of Illinois. April 9th, the date of the surrender at Appomattox, is also recommended as worthy of celebration and it has been thought well to combine the two.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

$3.00 PER YEAR

Less than One Cent a Day.

There are hundreds of people in this vicinity who have become accustomed to using a tin box in which to keep their valuables, who by using one of our SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES will find they are safer, strictly private and more satisfactory in every way. It requires two keys to unlock the box. The customer has one and the Bank the other, which is the master key. If you should lose your key, and some one else should find it, it would do them no good, because it would require the master key, which we hold before the box could be opened.

There is no better or stronger vault in the United States, and the rate we pay on burglary insurance, which we carry, is the lowest in the country.

Come in and let our vault clerk, Mr. Ewen I. Whitlock, explain.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE CHINCH BUGS.
A few weeks ago the Corn-Belt published a map showing the eastern boundary of the probable infested area by chinch bugs this year as passing through Richland County. The chinch bugs, we have just learned, have not observed that boundary line but have marched over into Lawrence County. The editor of the Summer Press wrote for information on methods of destroying the "chinch." The farmers in that locality were planning a week's campaign against them.

It will be well if other communities will organize for the same purpose.

WAS CLEVER DISPLAY.
Sixty Orpington chicks, placed in the window of the Sperry & Hutchinson Co., West State street, has attracted considerable attention the past few days as a clever Easter display.

SEED BED PREPARATION.
The importance of a well prepared seed bed can scarcely be overestimated. Time and labor spent in the preparation of a good seed bed for any of our cultivated crops yields a large profit, yet this source of profit is the one most often neglected.

Plants obtain their food in solution in the soil water surrounding soil particles. The roots exert a solvent action on plant food minerals, therefore the more finely the soil is pulverized the more soil particles we will have for the roots to come in contact with to obtain plant food. If the seed bed is hard and cloddy, or has large open spaces in it, the roots will be restricted in their feeding space. The plant food is made available largely through the action of bacteria or small living organisms in the soil. These organisms require air, moisture, and warmth in order to do their work and these conditions are at their best only in a well prepared seed bed.

SEED CORN SHOULD BE TESTED.
At this time of the year the farmer can use a few hours of time in testing his seed corn, and thereby save himself much money and labor that would otherwise be wasted. It is useless to say that it is now some trouble to test seed corn, but for that matter there is nothing worth doing that does not involve some trouble, and it is the man who is willing to "take the trouble" who usually succeeds. The testing of enough seed to plant a fifty acre corn crop need not take more than a total of one day's work for one man. It is surprising to count the ears of corn actually being borne in an apparently good corn field and then find by calculation what a small percentage that is of the number of ears that should be there. Remember again, that the missing hill, or the hill with one stalk, or with one of more barren stalks, requires just as much plowing as a good hill with two stalks each bearing a good ear.

There's something wrong about the person who can walk right by the box of seed packets in the grocery store when all outdoors says it's gardening time.

DR. CLAMPIT DEFINES POSITION.
In a communication to the Journal, Dr. L. H. Clampit, who is a candidate for member of the Board of Education from the second ward, defines his position as follows:

To the voters of the second ward. Since the Republican caucus it has been reported that I have withdrawn as a candidate for the Board of Education of the second ward. I therefore take this opportunity to state I am a candidate.

On or about the 24th of March, I announced myself as a candidate for the Board of Education subject to the voters, at the election held April 20th. My reasons for not appearing before the Republican caucus are these:

1st. I believe that the selection of a member of the school board, should be left to the people at large and not to any one political party.

2nd. 160 votes out of 1800, is not a fair representation to say who should be the candidate, and yet this is larger than the average attendance.

I trust that the above statements will make it clear to every voter why my name did not go before the caucus, and remove any doubt as to my being a candidate.

My record and experience as a member for the past sixteen years, should be sufficient for the people to judge as to my qualifications and whether they desire my further services.

Yours Very Truly,
L. H. Clampit.

BILLY CLIFFORD COMPANY COMING.

As in the instance of Billy (Single) Clifford, the legitimate stage is constantly recruiting from the vaudeville stage. Mr. Clifford is one of the best known and most popular actors on the variety platform and he has been a headliner for many years. But the demand for good actors on the dramatic and comic stage has been great and the supply has not kept up with the demand. The result is that variety has had to relinquish some of her brightest players. This season Mr. Clifford is starring in a new musical satire in two acts, called "Believe Me". It is a farce with a plot with many complications, but it has other features to recommend it, for it is packed with good songs, and they are sung as only Billy Clifford can sing them.

The young star is surrounded by a competent company of metropolitan players. The production is elegant and tasteful. The new offering will be "Believe Me" seen at the Grand theatre on Friday night, April 9th.
